

REPORT

OF THE

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

COMMUNICATING,

In answer to a resolution of the Senate, a report of the Register of the Treasury, showing the unexpended amount of the fund set apart by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo for the payment of claims of citizens of the United States.

JANUARY 12, 1860.—Read, ordered to lie on the table, and be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
January 11, 1860.

SIR: In obedience to the resolution, "that the Secretary of the Treasury be requested to inform the Senate what amount remains in the treasury unexpended of the fund set apart by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, between the United States and Mexico, for the payment of the claims of American citizens," adopted in the Senate of the United States on the 9th day of January, 1860, I have the honor to transmit herewith a report on the subject from the Register of the Treasury, in which the amount in question is stated to be $211,110 29.

I am, very respectfully,

HOWELL COBB,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. J. C. BRECKINRIDGE,
Vice President, and President of Senate U. S.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Register's Office, January 11, 1860.

SIR: In reply to the reference of the resolution of the Senate of the 9th instant, (herewith returned,) I have the honor to state that the amount remaining in the treasury, unexpended, of the fund set apart by the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, between the United States and Mexico, for the payment of the claims of American citizens, is $211,110 29.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

F. BIGGER, Register.

Hon. HOWELL COBB,
Secretary of the Treasury.
